Dedication

Each year the Senior Class works to produce a book which will be cherished through the years by the students because friendship links the present with the past. The memories of our companions echo back to those joyous, far-off days of primary school then to serious thoughts that made the truth draw near. Our Senior year has come and gone and now it is time to say farewell but with this book we wish to leave with you memories that will last forever.

We are aware of the debt we owe in these memories so let us honor those who have made our education possible by their many sacrifices through the years. It is through them that we have advanced toward the goal of every student, a good education. Their advice and helpfulness at all-time merits that we dedicate this 1947 Warrior to our parents.

Seniors

SENIORS OF '47

We, the Seniors of '47,
Have done well in the past.
In all our undertakings
We have never come out last.

We have talent and achievement,
Handsome boys and girls of beauty;
All so smart and filled with pride,
'Cause we've never shirked our duty.

We started out as freshmen,
Dumb and green, that's true;
But how we've changed in four year's time!
It's amazing, we think! Don't you?

Our sophomore year was now improving.
We'd caught the hang of things;
But our Jr. year was far the better,
For we gave the banquet and got our rings.

As seniors we've really gone to town;
Our goals are really high.
As time for graduating comes,
We'll start to bid good-by.

Departure's sad from friends so kind,
But we trust we'll meet in heaven.
Yes, I guess it's hard to beat
The Senior Class of '47.

The Class History of 1947

To us, the Seniors of '47, the historical year of 1935 marked the beginning of our educational career. In that year thirty-one gay and intelligent little boys and girls entered the first grade. Miss Nellie Pyle was the instructor on the hill while Miss Maggie McBride taught in the valley and their ambitious little students were Rose Marie Avery, Jack Adams, Dolores Edmunds, Jim Garrison, Jean Hagans, Allen Hein, Jack Helmer, George Hill, Harold Hungerford, Jerry Lou Johnson, Cleo Klein, Corrine Longhofer, Bill Franklin, Donna Powell, Norma Jean Province, Don Schlotz, Anita Seifert, Janice Socolofsky, Jerry French, Dean Bernard Hein, Laverne Herbel, Owen McCarty, Gene McNeal, Bill Newcomer, A.J. Pankratz, Wallace Powell, Jenny Ann Sallee, Oswald Schmidt, Nada Bell Schneider, Betty Lee Seifert, and Ruby Smith.

In the second grade Wayne Perry, Buford Peters, Geraldine Reindt, Charles and Mary Herendon, John Hall, Druward Klassen, Ruth Klein, Leon McCarty, and Leona Mohn joined us. Those leaving us were Owen McCarty, Bill Franklin, Jerry French, Dean Hein, A.J. Pankratz, Wallace Powell, and Betty Lee Seifert.

The third and fourth grade brought us Albert Hankling, Raynelda Oberny, Helen Reed, Billy Bob Sallsbury, Gertrude and June Sallsbury, Hilden Hayward, and Bill Griggs. Geraldine Reindt moved to Herington, Laverne Herbel left for Nebraska, and John Hall left us for Wichita.

Our next year, Betty Kitterman entered our ranks.

We felt as though we were taking a very important step when we entered Junior High. Clyde Heibert and Gayle Dee Timberlake were two new additions in the sixth grade while Lester Adcock and Gene McNeal, Ruby Smith, Nada Bell Schneider, and Oswald Schmidt left us.

While we were in the seventh grade we helped present the operetta, "Twilight Alley." Newcomers were Imogene Mathiot, Sylvia Stika, and Ruth Smitheisler. Though we were sad to lose the three Sallsbury's, two Herendons, Gayle Timberlake, Wayne Perry, and Helen Reed.

We planned and presented our graduation exercises in the form of a radio program. Billy Newcomer was the only member lost that year.

In the fall of 1943, thirty-five very timid and green freshmen entered the portals of dear old M.H.S., and how we survived that initiation we never knew! We started our high school career with these new classmates: Harry Haas, Nadine Hett, Harold Hungerford, Wanda Ireland, Earl Janzen, Lucille Ruby, Bob Winkley, Norma Jean Sandwell, Alta Stenzel, Dale Vogel, Vernon Vogel, Coleen Vogel, Dale Weyand, Virginia Chapman, Marcel Steiner, Franklin Reddig, Gerald Richmond, Betty Lucas, Wilma Lauban, Kenneth Klein, Bob Propp, and Dennis Oyer.

During our sophomore year Bob Winkley, Virginia Chapman, Marcel Steiner, Franklin Reddig Dennis Oyer, Gerald Richmond, Betty Lucas, Wilma Lauban, and Kenneth Klein dropped out. But we did increase with Bob Shields, Catherine Heerey, and Margaret Pientka.

One of our most successful years was our junior year with Sylvia Stika as President, Donna Powell as Vice-President, and Corrine Longhofer as our Secretary-Treasurer. Phyllis Suffield and Ruth Holub joined our forces this year. Our junior play, "Act Your Age", was so successful that we gave a repeat performance by special request. The cast included Don Schlotz, Jim Garrison, Dolores Edmunds, Donna Powell, Jean Hagans, Clyde Heibert, Alta Stenzel, Margaret Pientka, and Norma Jean Sandwell. Also we earned a large amount of money with which we gave a most successful banquet following the theme, "Enchanted Forest".

Following the traditional motto, "United We Cheat, Divided We Flunk", we rose in the highest position obtainable in Marion High School. Juanita Gutsch, Ernest Haas, Jack Swain, Boyd Higgins, and Ernest Ireland joined us but with only Juanita and Ernest completing the year.

Now we are making plans for our Senior Sneak Day and the class play.

Our class officers are Allen Hein, President; Jim Garrison, Vice-President; and Jean Hagans, Secretary-Treasurer.

From every senior of '47 we wish to extend our personal appreciation to those giving us the opportunity of obtaining our education. We shall use our newly gained knowledge to the very best of our ability in whatever we undertake to do.

Class Prophecy

Mr. Jantz, our science enthusiast and class sponsor, who has been secretly experimenting with his atomic powered rocket ship which he intended to send to the moon, climbed into it the other day to make a few adjustments and the darn thing went off, hurling itself and Mr. Jantz into space.

Arriving on the moon, Mr. Jantz decided to get out and explore the place. He came to a cave which had a very large door. Hearing a voice within singing, "Open the door, Richard", he opened it. Within he found the world traveler and prophet, Kilroy. Knowing Kilroy's marvelous occult powers, he asked him what the class of "47" would be doing in the next 25 years. Kilroy said, quote, "Rose Marie Avery, Juanita Gutsch and Jerry Johnson are the famous Weyand Moon Models, developed by dieting on green cheese and moonmist produced by Bill Griggs.

Dolores Edmunds is now the second Betty Grable of Hollywood. Her producer and manager, owner of the M.G.M. Corporation, is none other than Vernon Vogel.

Jim Garrison has now developed a figure associated with his business. He has taken over the Falstaff Brewery Corporation having the central office located at Marion, Kansas, the home of the U.N.O.. His silent co-owner is Norma Jean Province.

The Ice Capades Revue of 1972 stars Leona Mohn, a second Sonja Henie, and her skating quartette, the "Icelites", composed of Katherine Heerey, Nadine Hett, Margaret Pientka, and Lucille Ruby. They are now appearing in Paris while making their world tour with their magnificent and outstanding performances.

Harry Haas is now flying his non-stop daily rocket patrol to the moon. His space wife and hostess, the former Donna Powell, assists him with his spectacular manner by seating each male occupant comfortably.

Jean Hagans and Don Schlotz, having ended their ten year feud by burying the hatchet in Case's skull, have recently purchased the children's home at Newton to be occupied by them and their many children.

Ruth Holub has taken the place of the ever famous Aunt Jemima with her "Aunt Rufie's Do Mix".

Dale Vogel, who has been an understudy of the Mayo Brothers for the last 13 years, is now stationed at the recently completed Marion Hospital as chief surgeon. His major operation being the opening of ether cans.

Wanda Ireland went to India to play with the Cobra's. She is now the famous snake charmer of the Universe.

Cleo Kline is now at the bottom of the ocean looking for a mere man. There she ran into Earl Janzen who has taken the place of King Neptune watching the drain plug in the bottom of the ocean and watching Coleen Vogel, the newest mermaid in the sea.

Alta Stenzel and Ruth Klein have recently purchased Ringling Bros. Barnum and Bailey world famous circus after working their way up from the fat woman and tatoo lady, respectively.

Imogene Mathiot, who always had five or six men on the string, has started a private railroad to Mexico. She visits there once a year to trade her old husband in for a new one.

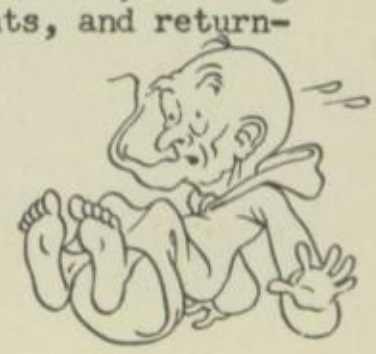
Corrine Longhofer has just joined Allen Hein in their crusade to resurrect the Holy Roller Religion. Corrine's main purpose is reducing while Allen is a firm believer.

Phyllis Suffield, being a curious woman of the world, has taken over Hedda Hopper's column on Norma Jean Sandwell's television program, "You Shoot—We Run".

Clyde Heibert, working in the U.S. Mint at Denver, decided to quit. Parting with the words, quote, "As soon as I get my press together I intend to set up a business of my own." Anita Seifert, the blues singer of the famous Stika's Dew Drop Inn, being worried about his miserly ways, roped him in and sings, "All that glitters is not gold but partly diamonds!"

Janice Socolofsky is now in charge of the Marion County Poor Farm where she lives among her two-toned cats. They are white cats with a black stripe and are the only cats in the world who have the odor of rose water instead of the old fashioned polecat juice. Our former sponsor and music director, Miss Hawbecker, who has recently joined Janice in her research, is acting as business manager and is attempting to find a market for these marvelous creatures. As yet, she has been unsuccessful in this for these animals at times return to their native conditions." Unquote.

Mr. Jantz then gathered up the notes he had been taking and closed the door, bidding Kilroy farewell. He got back into his rocket ship, made a few more adjustments, and returned home presenting me with this document I have just finished reading.



Class Will

We, the Seniors of 1947, being of sound mind and body, publish and declare our last will and testament in the following manner:

We, the Seniors, leave to the Juniors our dignity as Seniors; we hope that you may become even more dignified than we.

We, the Seniors, leave to the Sophomores our desirable habits. You may take them or leave them.

We, the Seniors, leave to the Freshmen our now occupied seats in study hall. We hope you don't find them so tiresome and hard as we have found them.

We, the Seniors, leave to our sponsor, Mr. Jantz, our water guns for his son--or himself. They are the ones with which we annoyed everyone when we were Juniors.

We, the Seniors, leave to our sponsor, Miss Hawbecker, a club which she can use in boys glee club.

I, Rose Marie Avery, will my faithful lover, John Hett, to Joan Winkley. I hope Joan will mother him with love as I have.

I, Dolores Meridith Edmunds, will my job at the Moderne Studio to Joyce Keazer. I hear Joyce likes dark rooms, too.

I, James Ray Garrison, will my technique with blondes to Warren Woerz, who goes in for redheads.

I, Bill Wesley Griggs, will my appendix to William Zellers since William can't find his.

I, Juanita Grace Gutsch, will my sweet ways and winning smile to Darlene Anderson.

I, Harry Francis Haas, will my green and white striped Conoco suit to Leslie Powell, Jr. of the Home Oil Co. I hope he makes good use of it.

I, Jean Elaine Hagans, will my interest in K.S.T.C. to Betty Williams who also has a great interest there.

I, Catherine Heerey, leave my job at the Dinette to Donna Joyce Hobein. Remind Archie to set his clock right so you won't be late for dates.

I, Allen Jay Hein, and I, Coleen Vogel, will our fruitful love to Kenneth Conyers and Loyette Hollar whom we hear are going into the orchard business.

I, Thelma Nadine Hett, will my writing tablet, pencils, envelopes, and stamps to Shirley Collett, so she may continue my 12 page letters to Ohio.

I, Ruth Holub, will my jive at the Pilsen dances to Kathryn Popp.

I, Wanda Ireland, will my corny jokes to Gladys Eitzen. I hope you get more laughs than I do.

I, Earl Cornelius "Van" Janzen, will my passing ability-that is in football-to Roger Hannaford, Jr. There is a question, does he need it?

I, Jerry Lou Johnson, and I, Cleo Maxine Klein, will our ambition to get to school on time to Patricia Ruth Brose and Patricia Jane Harris since they have a fairly good start already.

I, Ruth Faye Kline, will my long blond hair to Vicki Barrett. Won't she make a cute blonde?

I, Corrine Rose Longhofer, thought of willing one important object, but on second thought, in my better judgment, decided not to and just will my judgment in choosing men to Anne Burkholder. I hope Anne's choice turns out to be as true as mine. The question is, "Is he really true?"

I, Imogene Coleen Mathiot, will my winning ways with boys to Georgia "date bait" Christensen. I hope Georgia can make up her mind quicker than I have.

I, Leona Mae Mohn, will my favorite seat in my favorite class, American History, to Richard Call. I hope Richard will like it better than I have.

I, Donna Darlene Powell, will my beautiful red hair to Donna Claire Miesse. I hope you don't break as many combs and brushes as I did.

I, Lucille Marie Ruby, will my job at the Owl Car to Darlene Zellers. I hope she makes as many acquaintances as I have.

I, Norma Jean Sandwell, will my prospective brother-in-law, Harold Dean Hansen, to my sister, Lucy, so there will be closer family relations.

I, Donald Dean Schlotz, and I, Clyde June Hiebert, will our motorcycle to Bob Reinke and Max Merrill. Maybe you can install some venetian blinds for the country roads.

I, Anita Seifert, will my redheaded beau, Charles Gutsch, to my sister, Faith, in hope of charity.

I, Janice Marilyn Socolofsky, will my ability to yell in people's ears to Darlene Richmond. I hope Darlene will be as happy at it as I have been.

I, Alta Arlene Stenzel, willingly leave Dean Waddell to Donna Jean Christensen. Please take good care of his P-coat.

I, Sylvia Marie Stika, will my boy friend in every town to Virginia Geis--sooner or later there have to be some changes made.

I, Phyllis Joan Suffield, will my graceful swing to Loretta Conyers. I hope it works for you as it has for me.

I, Dale Wayne Vogel, will my interest in the farm to John Blankley and his great lover, Phyllis Larsen. I hope they will raise a good crop.

I, Vernon LeRoy Vogel, will my newly acquired wolfishness to Mahlon Wheeler. He really doesn't need it but we are sure he won't kick about it.

I, Dale Allen Weyand, will my car to Donald Dody for he will love to have a chance to honk at all the pretty girls.

If these articles are not claimed in 30 days they may be turned in for the court expenses.

The Junior Class presented, on two nights, a three act comedy entitled, "A Credit to the Family". All who were fortunate enough to see it will long remember the hilarious situation which continually occurred and in particular will sympathetically visualize the predicament of a certain member of the cast whose broad " shoulders " habitually interfered with his being able to free himself from the legs of a table.

A. Hein - Senior - Although it was Allen's first year out for football, he played a very good game at end. He was an excellent pass receiver.

D. Hansen - Junior - Dean, who was handicapped by inexperience, played a tackle position. Even though he wasn't a regular, he always showed plenty of fight.

W. Hayen - Junior - Warren, being one of the heaviest men on the team, played both center and tackle. He has one more year to play for M. H. S.

E. Janzen - Senior - Earl started out the season at the tackle position. It wasn't until about mid-season that he proved himself a good ball carrier. He played his fullback position very well.

V. Vogel - Senior - Vernon earned his first letter this year at the end position. He had unusual ability to snatch passes which made him an excellent end.

J. Garrison - Senior - Jim also earned his first letter this year. He spent most of his time at tackle and was a good defensive man.

B. Hein - Sophomore - Bob played end and played it very well. He has two more years to play for M. H. S. and should prove to be a good ball player.

D. Waddell - Junior - Dean, though small, played a good game at half. He chalked up many extra points by the use of his educated toe.

B. Hannaford - Freshman - Bud got his first taste of high school football this year. Bud, who was shifty as well as fast, was a very good half-back.

B. Reinke - Sophomore - Bob played the blocking back position. He was a good defensive man oweing to the fact that he was a hard-hitting tackler.

J. Druse - Junior - Jim played his end position very well. He more than once turned an end run in. He also has another year of football for M. H. S.

K. Conyers - Junior - Kenny was a fast and shifty ball carrier. He had a good left arm for throwing passes. He received serious injuries which kept him out of the last two games.

J. Hett - Junior - John was built very well for tackle. He caused the opposing teams alot of trouble on every play that came his way. He was a very good defensive man.

M. Merrill - Freshman - Max also played on a high school team his first year. He earned his letter at the end position but occassionally he filled in at quarterback.

W. Woertz - Junior - Warren played his guard position the way it should be played. Although he was small he had the uncanny ability to sift through the line and stop a play before it got started.

D. Fruechting - Sophomore - Don played center for the Warriors. He earned his first letter and should prove to be a good player in the years to follow.

D. Vogel - Senior - Dale, who is not in the picture, played half back. He did his share of the ball carrying and blocking. He was a good offensive and defensive man.

D. Schlotz - Senior - Don was the quarterback of the team. He was a good passer, ball carrier, and defensive man. He was also a good ball handler.

C. Hiebert - Senior - Clyde played half-back and guard this year. Although he had a bad arm, he was always in there fighting for the tackle. He was the captain of the team.

THE CORONATION

The elaborate and colorful ceremony on January 21, 1947, began with the candidates for queen coming in one side of the gym and the candidates for king entering from the other side. The girls were attired in lovely formals of various colors while the boys were in their basketball uniforms. They formed a semi-circle around the pink and white throne as the pep band played. The four attendants, Loyette Hollar, Sylvia Stika, Jim Garrison, and Kenny Conyers, precede the queen, Janice Socolofsky and the king, Clyde Hiebert, to the throne. Sweet little Erma Janzen carried the crown of white carnations and dark, curly-headed Junior Wiebe carried the basketball for the King. After the King had crowned the Queen, he gave her a royal kiss and assisted her to the place reserved for the royal group. The Queen was radiant in a white gown with a lovely arm bouquet of red roses.

The candidates for queen and king were: Norma Jean Sandwell, Donna Powell, Virginia Geis , Donna Christensen, Lucy Sandwell, Lois Kelsey Norma Sly, Nora Zeller, Don Schlotz, Allen Hein, Dean Waddell, Warren Woertz, Dennis Youk Bob Reinke, Bud Hannaford, and Monty Frazier .

In Retrospect and Prospect

LOOKING BACK WE REMEMBER MOST...the thrill of just being Seniors...electing class officers...getting our class rings...cheering our Warriors on to victory ...chemistry!...having our senior pictures taken and the thrill of exchanging them...school dances...working on the paper and the annual...our queens...Junior Senior prom...Senior play...being measured for caps and gowns...class meetings ...teachers and fellow students...Senior minstrel...Senior sneak...Senior week ...Graduation.

And how we love to think of those many times we walked up and down the old familiar steps of school.

Which have led us to the main street of life, the future and its prospects of ...a College career?...business position?...military conscription?...religious life?...wedded life?...
